Set a thief to catch a thief

The two parties on either side of the time-honoured-but-now-gone-out-of-favour photographic camera, namely the person(s) to be shot and the photographer happened to be the same, the device having the facility of timer allowing time for the latter party to join the former in a matter of a few seconds long before the phenomenon of selfie, armed with any model of smart phone came on the scene, but the now-all-too-familiar term was unheard of until not too long ago. More than 900 million people across the land are said to be in possession of the hand-held demon, a rapidly rising number among the masses changing over to its multi-function models, clinching selfies for momentary euphoria. If some day in future taking selfies of the country becomes a reality, the emerging picture is bound to be of great help in taking a leisurely but close look at its real image portraying the profiles of citizens, particularly the current public image of the self-declared netas, which doesn't need elaboration in this column.

Pictures of the land's eminent citizens adorning the interiors of public buildings such as the nation's Parliament and Offices of the Government Departments no longer seem to inspire anybody nowadays, not to speak of recollecting the thoughts and deeds of the galaxy of those luminaries of the land's past.

The column spaces of the dailies have run short in fully conveying to people the repercussions, without leaving any detail, in the run up to the Parliamentary poll announced by the Election Commission of India. The goal that the Commission has set to itself, namely voting by the eligible voters without fear to ensure free and fair election is both a slogan and a bottom line of action, guided by the model code that the contestants are required to comply with. The candidates taking their chances of scoring victory at the hustings to reach the Parliament as well as the candidates taking the public examination at SSLC and PUC levels to cross the bar seem to be sailing in the same boat of suspicion even as the Government has swung into action of forming Surveillance teams to take away tainted cash and stocks of liquor, the two weapons used extensively in the poll war. And Flying Squads to catch the latter candidates indulging in malpractice in the examination hall.

The world may or may not be watching the goings on but many in the camp of elderly are sure to be aghast even as both vote-seeking candidates and examination-taking candidates, barring exceptions, are seen as thieves, but what is the public image of the functionaries in the teams set to catch the offenders. The idiom set a thief to catch a thief suggests itself.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

HEROES AND THEIR WARTS: 'Intellectuals' by Paul Johnson, a former editor of the 'New Statesman' was first published in 1988. The first sentence, reads as follows: "This book is an examination of the moral and judgemental credentials of certain leading intellectuals to give advice to humanity on how to conduct its affairs." With that in mind, Mr. Johnson lays bare the private lives and characters of guys like Rousseau, Shelley, Marx, Tolstoy, Bertrand Russell, Sartre, etc. What were they really like, he asks. Nasty or kind? Were they the grasping types, rattling their tin cups all the time? How did they treat their wives and children, born within and without wedlock? How did they treat people and friends? And their hygiene? Sexual preferences? Would any port do in a storm? Mr. Johnson says he has only set down established facts. What has resulted is, if I may coin phrase with an all too modest cough, "don't judge an intellectual by his thoughts alone". — T.C.A. Srinivasa-Raghavan in Business Standard

Company sells honey with dead hornets

Tokyo: Honey producer in Oita Prefecture, Japan, recently sparked controversy online after it was reported that the company sells a product named Honey with Hornets, which actually contained a giant dead hornet suspended in the sweet liquid.

While the decision to put a dead hornet inside a jar of honey can definitely be called questionable, even more so is the fact that the giant Japanese hornets are actually placed inside the jar while still alive and left to drown in the viscous liquid. According to an article, the hornets, which are known natural enemies of bees, are captured alive by beekeepers while trying to encroach on the bees' territory to be used as macabre decorations for the company's jars of honey.

Culinary artist creates amazing Sashimi plating

Tokyo: Amateur culinary artist and Instagram sensation mikyoui00 has been creating amazing Sashimi (a Japanese delicacy consisting of very fresh raw fish or meat sliced into thin pieces and often eaten with soy sauce) plating and has taken the internet by storm.

mikyoui00 never had any professional art or design training, but he was always passionate about food preparation and plating, and wanted to instill that same kind of love in his son.

The amateur Sashimi artist would watch videos to reproduce some of their most impressive projects. He started posting his best works on Instagram and people started taking notice.

His page now has nearly 40,000 followers, and photos of his masterpieces are now doing the rounds on social media.

Felicitation to Padma Shri Awardee Pt. Rajiv Taranath

Pandit Rajiv Taranath

Pandit Rajiv Taranath is a household name in the field of Hindustani Classical music and more so because of his mastery over his chosen instrument 'Sarod.' He was initiated into his passionate domain at the young age of three by his father which rolled on into his acquiring mastery over the string instrument under the tutelage of the master-craftsman and giant of a musician Ustad Ali Akbar Khan.

Young Rajiv went to Bombay to meet his Master and followed him to Calcutta where he learnt the nuances of the instrument for six years and mastered the art in full measure. Accolades and honours have followed him in plenty but this has not dimmed his humility when it comes to playing the instrument.

It is a well-known fact that he is a Padma Shri awardee as well as a Nadoja to name a few. Mysuru is lucky to have him choose it as his place of residence now.

Pandit's contribution to development of Hindustani Music in this part of the country and more so in Mysuru is substantial. My own experience tells me regarding this in that he has organised and encouraged young and upcoming youngsters from North Karnataka and Poona to come down to Mysuru and give concerts. He gives them substantial remuneration also. Nearly twenty such concerts have been arranged in the mini first floor hall (capacity 70-80) of this writer's residence.

About ten Music Sabhas of Mysuru have joined together to honour him as one of their own and felicitate him for his notable achievements. In this connection, a function has been arranged on Monday the 25th March at 6 pm at Navajyothi auditorium, JSS Women's College in Saraswathipuram.

The chief guests for the function are Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamji of Suttur Mutt; Nadoja Dr. Chandrashekar Kambara, Chairman of Kendra Sahitya Academy; Ustad Fayaz Khan, Chairman of State Sangeetha Nrithya Academy and a leading exponent of Hindustani Music. It is requested that the cultural literati of our city attend the rare function in large numbers and make it a grand success. All are welcome.

IPL 2019 to kick-off this evening

No Gala Opening Ceremony

BCCI to donate funds to families of Pulwama terror attack victims

Chennai, Mar. 23- The 2019 Indian Premier League (IPL) Season is a lot different from what it traditionally has been. A major change came in the 12th edition of the cash-rich franchise League when the Board of Control for Cricket in India (BCCI) decided against organising a Gala Opening Ceremony before the start of the first game of the Season this evening.

The decision was taken in the wake of the Pulwama terror attack that shook the country on Feb. 14. Instead of spending money on a curtain-raiser event, the BCCI decided to allocate the same funds towards the welfare of the families of more than 40 CRPF Jawans who had lost their lives in the dastardly terror attack that took place in the Valley.

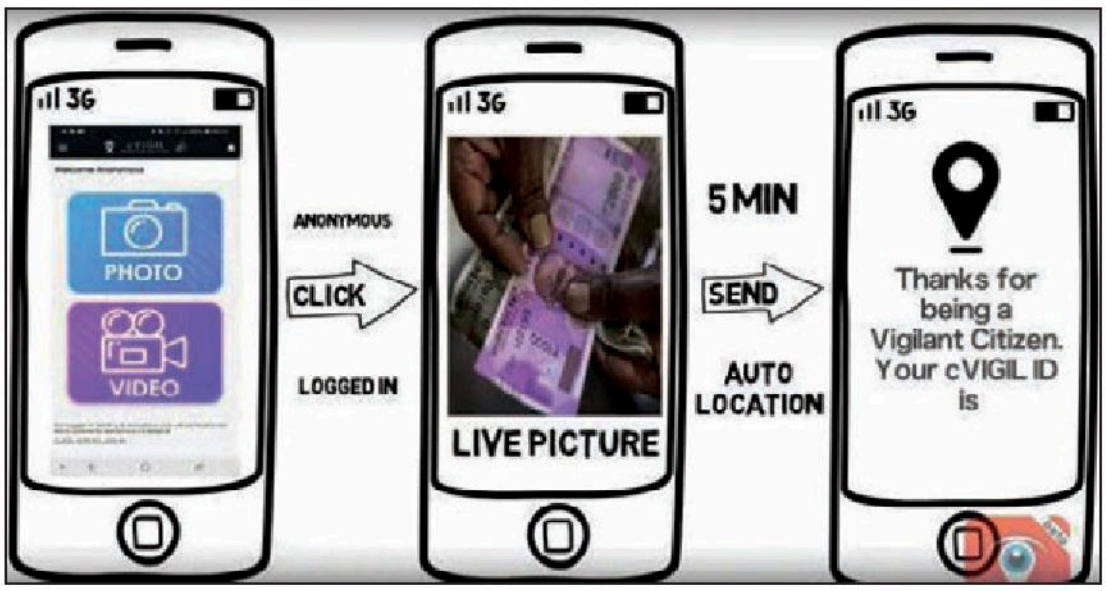
cVIGIL app to report poll code violation



Mysuru, Mar. 23 - The Election Commission of India (ECI) is stringently implementing the election Model Code of Conduct for the guidance of political parties and candidates. However, often times, political parties violate the poll conduct.

To keep the political parties in check, ECI introduced a mobile app 'cVIGIL', which stands for "citizens' vigil", on a pan-India level. The app was initially launched in 2018 and was put to test during the Assembly elections of Madhya Pradesh, Chhattisgarh, Rajasthan, Telangana and Mizoram.

The app allows people to record any violation of the code of conduct and send it to the relevant election authority. By using the cVIGIL app, citizens can record visuals on their Android mobile and promptly report any violation of code of conduct, any incident of intimidation or inducement within minutes of having witnessed them and without having to go to the Office of the Returning Officer.

The app allows any person to click a picture or record a 2-minute video in case there is a violation of the code of conduct. The photo or video then can be easily uploaded on the cVIGIL app. The app will then use the location services of the mobile device to automatically pin-point the location. Once the picture or the video is submitted, the citizen will get a Unique ID that will enable him to track and get updates on his mobile device. The citizen can report as many violations as possible.

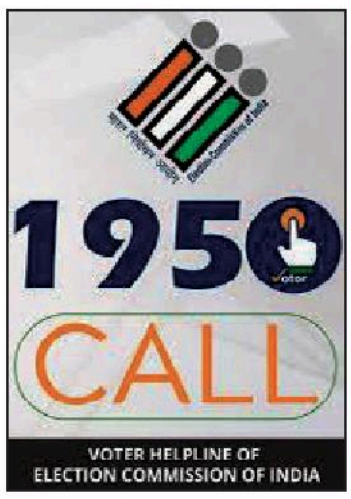
There are also the chances of misuse of the app by the political parties to target the opposition. However, to check such misuse the app does not allow pre-recorded videos or old images to be uploaded. Also, once the image is clicked or the video is recorded, the app will provide a window of only 5 minutes to the user to report the incident.

To respond to app-based complaints, a Control Room has been set up at the Deputy Commissioner's Office in Mysuru. The details — photographs or videos — of the violation lands at the Control Room the moment they are uploaded on the app.

The citizen's complaint is assigned to a Flying Squad team in the area, and it is expected to reach the spot within 15 minutes from the time of receipt of the complaint. After a preliminary inquiry by the team, a report is forwarded to the respective Assistant Returning Officer (ARO) through the cVIGIL investigator app. On the ARO's response, the complainant will receive a message.

Deputy Commissioner and District Electoral Officer Abhiram G. Sankar said he had constituted a cVIGIL monitoring team headed by an officer and having six members to assist him or her. If the complaint received through the app is found to be spot on, action will be taken within 100 minutes.

Call Helpline 1950 to find your name on Voter List and know your Polling Booth



Mysuru, Mar. 23 (RKB&BCT)- The Election Commission of India has strengthened its Voter Helpline to make it easy for the Voters to get authentic information pertaining to their voter registration. It is an All India Helpline that has been efficiently segregated and mapped to the respective districts.

The enrolled electors in the Electoral Roll can check the details of their personal information, the Polling Station planned for them to visit on the Poll Day and to know the contact details of Booth Level Officers, Electoral Registration Officers and District Election Officers, by calling 1950 Helpline Number.

This number shall receive calls on all working days during office hours. Public can lodge their complaints, suggestions, feedback, and information using this helpline number after providing their identity details. Every call shall be recorded; hence fake calls are discouraged. Callers from every district have been mapped to the respective district Deputy Commissioner's Office and separate Control Rooms have been established.

However, several Star of Mysore readers have complained that 1950 is not accessible and whenever they dial the number, they will get a "line busy" message. Clarifying on this, the election officers have said that since it is a toll-free number, many voters will be accessing the helpline. They have advised the voters to at least try a couple of times to get through the line.

Since mere possession of EPIC Card is not enough for the electors but their names should also be there in the electoral roll for enabling them to cast their vote on the poll day, it is necessary that the citizens/electors should check if their names figure in the electoral rolls.

Golden Girl Stella as UoM Ambassador

Sir,

Congratulations to Golden Girl Emelife Stella Chinelo from Nigeria, who bagged a record number of 20 gold medals and five cash prizes at the 99th Convocation of University of Mysore (UoM) held recently.

Her exemplary performance debunks the common stereotyping associated with students from Africa in general. She will be a great ambassador for UoM and the University could do well to use this opportunity in image building exercise, internationally.

'100 crore population living in slave mindset'

Orator Tejaswi Surya rips apart dynastic politics; says families enslaved India for selfish interests

Mysuru, Mar. 23 (SPN&BCT)- He is in his twenties and has acquired a law degree and is a practicing lawyer. And he is in great demand for campaigning in different parts of the State for the Lok Sabha elections.

Tejaswi Surya is emerging as the new-generation youth icon of the party, thanks to his oratory skills and clarity on issues pertaining to the youth. Surya has become familiar in rightwing circles through social media, and he is addressing many rallies.

Yesterday he was in city to participate in voter awareness among youth campaign organised under the banner "Volunteers for Nation Students Conclave 2k19" at KSOU Convocation Hall.

True to his oratory skills, Surya, Secretary of the BJP State Youth Wing, dealt with various topics concerning national interest and said that India, despite having a strong population strength of over 100 crore, is still living in the mindset of slavery. "The main reason for this is we have been ruled for over 70 years by political families and dynastic politicians who treat Indian citizens as slaves," he said.

"These families have ruled India as feudal lords and they consider India as their fiefdom. They have continued to treat people as slaves to safeguard the interests of their families. They tied the hands of the youth and did not allow them to prosper," he charged.

"China and Pakistan have been continuously targeting India and terrorist strikes are one among them. Unfortunately, all these years we have kept quiet and though we were capable, we did not strike back. Even our sovereignty was threatened when our Parliament was attacked. Still we kept quiet and our leaders indulged in only talking, demoralising the Armed Forces," he explained and added that now India is being seen as one of the powerful nations in the world.

Continuing his tirade against dynastic rule, Surya said that Narendra Modi becoming the Prime Minister has rattled the "feudal lords" as they know very well that their tradition of fooling and enslaving people will not be tolerated anymore. "While Modi has a single agenda of a New India and a Super Power India, the opposition Mahagatbandhan's only agenda is to stop Modi.

"These families have intentionally kept the people poor with no access to good healthcare and education. Those who represented families entered politics and over the years their wealth grew beyond thousands of crores of rupees. These leaders have amassed wealth that is enough to sustain four to five generations of kith and kin," he said.

"This amassing of wealth derailed democracy and we became a corrupt country. Even when Jawaharlal Nehru became the first Prime Minister, he said that he would give a pro-poor government. This pro-poor slogan was continued by successive governments led by one family and is now continued by Rahul Gandhi who turns out to be a big liar, misleading people and criticising the Armed Forces" he said.

He urged voters to vote on national issues and said if the nation is strong and if there is no threat and aggression from Pakistan and China, nobody can stop India from being a superpower. "The youth are already on our side. Modi is the biggest youth rock star in India today. The youth are the decisive voters in each constituency," he said.

Member of erstwhile Mysore Royal Family Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar, actor-director Rishabh Shetty, convener of "Volunteers for Nation Students Conclave 2k19" M.S. Harish Shenoy and others were present. On the occasion, Dr. Chandrashekhar of Aditya Hospital, who donated Rs. 1 crore to Armed Forces Welfare Fund, was felicitated.

BJP Spokesperson and Mysuru-Kodagu LS seat in-charge Dr. Vamanacharya said that Pratap Simha was a strong nationalist with a clean image and it is certain that he would sail through this time as well.

Pointing out that national issues come to the fore in the LS polls, he said that Modi's popularity was intact and there was no doubt about PM Modi returning to power.

EVMs, VVPATs shifted to taluk treasuries, strong rooms

Mysuru, Mar. 23 (LNY,MTY& BCT)- With hardly a month to go for the clash of titans in the Lok Sabha Elections, the Election Commission, aided actively by the ground-level implementation officers are fully geared up for the festival of democracy by ensuring the poll process is glitch-free.

While a massive exercise has begun to sensitise voters by Systematic Voter's Education and Electoral Participation (SVEEP) officers, a set of officials are ensuring that the Model Code of Conduct is implemented stringently with no room for electoral malpractices. Another set of officials are ensuring that the Electronic Voting Machines (EVMs), Voter Verifiable Paper Audit Trial (VVPAT) machines and other electioneering machines and equipment are reaching all booths, district treasuries and taluk treasuries.

Last evening, the election officers transported EVMs, VVPAs and control units kept at the high-security EVM and VVPAT Storage Room in Nanjaraja Bahadur Choultry on Vinoba Road to all the eight Assembly Segments (Chamaraja, Krishnaraja, Narasimharaja, Chamundeshwari, Periyapatna, Hunsur, Virajpet and Madikeri) that form the Mysuru-Kodagu Parliamentary Constituency. The shifting process was completed today morning.

The machines will be kept at the respective District and Taluk Treasuries and strong rooms and will later be shifted to local-level booths. The shifting operation was carried out under strict surveillance and was supervised by EVM Nodal Officer and CEO, Karnataka Exhibition Authority Girish, Joint Director Food and Civil Supplies Department Shivanna who is also the Assistant Returning Officer, H.D. Kote, Election Tahsildar, DC Office Paramesh and Deputy Tahsildar, DC Office Nizamuddin.

Randomisation process

Election officers have begun the process of randomisation of officers. In all, 14,000 officials and staff will be used for the electoral process and all their names are being listed and sorted out. The names are procured from the Human Resource officers of the respective departments like Education, Revenue, Police and others.

The names and designations, place of residence and place of work is fed to the TRIES Software at the ZP Hall and mixed. The mixing process ensures that there is transparency in selecting officers without fear or favour. A list of 14,000 officers is being made and mixed to allot the booths in eight Assembly segments coming under Mysuru-Kodagu Parliamentary constituency.

An extra 10 percent of officers (1,400) will be kept as waiting list and another 10 percent of employees will be reserved. Exemption from poll duty will be given only to those employees who have genuine reason like illness, pregnancy, neo-natal mothers and other genuine cases.

Deputy Commissioner Abhiram G. Sankar who is the District Electoral Officer and officials during randomisation process.

Selfies in C-VIGIL app

Complaints including missing names in voters' list, selfies and civic issues were registered via the Election Commission's cell phone app 'c-VIGIL, which were rejected by the poll officials. The cell phone application allows citizens to register complaints about election code of conduct violations in their areas. However, of the total 28 complaints, 13 were rejected as they did not concern the poll code of conduct.

The app is yet to become popular and according to the authorities, they hardly receive any complaints from the public regarding the model code violations. The authorities, however, are confident that the use of app is expected to pick up in coming days.

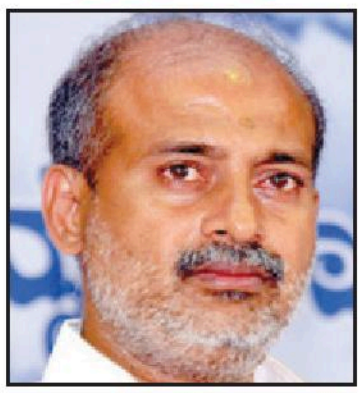
"The app is designed in such a way that the pictures or the videos will be uploaded along with the location from where it is taken, which will help the authorities to track the complaints quickly. The complaints will appear in the dashboard of the area election officers and the authorities can monitor all the complaints from any place and ensure timely action with the help of flying squads," said Additional Deputy Commissioner Anuradha who is the Deputy Electoral Officer.

The complaints, if genuine, are forwarded to the booth level Assistant Returning Officer who is expected to take action within 100 minutes. "There must be more awareness on the c-VIGIL app," she said and added that the complaints will be forwarded to the State Election Commission for further action.

Another official said: "After downloading the app, some people try to test it by posting irrelevant pictures and selfies. These are mostly anonymous persons, who don't provide their phone numbers. These cases are dropped."

Former MP C.H. Vijayashankar meets Minister S.R. Mahesh

Mysuru, Mar.23 (PM&DM)- Even before the Congress is to announce its list of candidates for Lok Sabha seats from the State, former MP and Congress leader C.H. Vijayashankar, who is the most likely nominee of the Congress for the Mysuru-Kodagu LS seat, meet Tourism Minister S.R. Mahesh at the latter's residence in Chamaraja Mohalla here yesterday.



S.R. Mahesh

C.H. Vijayashankar

During the meeting, the two are said to have discussed campaign issues in the backdrop of the 'coalition dharma' between the Congress and JD(S).

Speaking after the meeting, Vijayashankar said the coalition Government was formed ten months ago to keep the BJP out of power and now with the countdown for the LS polls having already begun the 'coalition dharma' must be strictly followed by the two parties.

Claiming that JD(S) Supremo H.D. Deve Gowda has assured Congress President Rahul Gandhi of winning the Mysuru seat, the former MP said that the Congress and JD(S) will hold a joint meeting shortly, during which the poll strategy will be discussed in detail.

He maintained that H.D. Deve Gowda, Chief Minister H.D.Kumaraswamy and CLP leader Siddharamaiah will campaign for him.

Former MLA H.P. Manjunath, City Congress President R. Murthy, District Congress President Dr. B.J. Vijaykumar and others were present.

Tourism Minister S.R. Mahesh of the JD(S), speaking to press persons after the meeting, said that disciplinary action will be taken against party legislators, leaders and workers who do not follow the 'coalition dharma', agreed to between the two parties. Stating that workers of both the JD(S) and Congress should adhere to 'coalition dharma', the Minister cautioned the workers that they would be held responsible for any decline in the vote percentage of the coalition candidate.

Replying to a question on reports of Congress leaders from K.R. Nagar supporting actress Sumalatha who is contesting from Mandya, Mahesh said the matter has been brought to the notice of the party high command and CLP leader Siddharamaiah too has assured of instructing the congress workers against campaigning for Sumalatha.

Battle of the Bat & Ball

By V. Shourabh

Indian Premier League (IPL) has enjoyed a fairytale journey in India by putting up the best business model as it combined both Cricket and Bollywood, the two gigantic elements that the Indians crave for. This glamour quotient and the abundance of talent available in India has boomed the success of IPL with every passing year. IPL is one such tournament which keeps the fans at the edge of their seats. It promises nail-biting action, close encounters and a complete entertainment package to the audience throughout the Season.

IPL is all about being in the spotlight and making name and fame as it provides the apt platform for a youngster or any player to make a statement or showcase his talent to the world.

Right since its inception in 2008, IPL has become a mandatory summer spectacle for every Indian. The craze is such that the fans swell in numbers to fill the stands, chant anthems and celebration cries, actively follow their favourite clubs on social media and TV viewership booms up every year with new audience gaining love towards the cash-rich league.

Recently, Chennai Super Kings had a nets and a training session at Chepauk and around 30,000 odd fans had witnessed it. Never ever before has anyone seen such a crazy fan-frenzy training session. This is a heaven's paradise for both the players as well as the fans as they get to see their icons in action as they battle it out with the bat and ball in the field.

IPL, with its global appeal, has captivated audiences across borders. As the ICC Cricket World Cup is hovering near, some Cricket Boards are hesitant to send their key players, or have given a stipulated period for them to take part in the event after which they will have to head back to their respective World Cup training camp. Every new season brings in new mix of players, youngsters and a new hope. The hope that keeps the fans motivated and feeds their belief that this year their favourite team will emerge victorious.

Royal Challengers Bangalore (RCB)

Royal Challengers Bangalore is one such team which always has the big stars in their squad and yet they have been unsuccessful to lay their hands on the IPL trophy. Led by Indian Skipper and ICC World Number 1 ODI batsman Virat Kohli, RCB hopes to turn it around the year and win it for the fans who have constantly supported them. With the likes of Marcus Stoinis, AB De Villers, Nathan Coulter Nile, Shirmon Hetmyer, Heinrich Klassen, Shivam Dube, Umesh Yadav, Yuzvendra Chahal in the mix, the fans believe that this year belongs to RCB. 2019 has been the year for Karnataka and Bengaluru. With Bengaluru FC emerging champions in ISL, Bengaluru Bulls in Kabbadi (Pro Kabbadi League), Bengaluru Raptors in Pro Badminton League, Karnataka team winning the Syed Mushtaq Ali Tournament, the onus is now on the RCB boys to live up to the fans' expectations. Since 2015, RCB have finished in the lower half of the table. The addition of power hitting stars Shimron Hetmyer and Marcus Stoinis along with extremely talented all rounder Shivam Dube gives RCB the required edge in the middle overs. With their tagline 'Play Bold' and chant Ee Sala Cup Namde, the fans will expect that their stars live up to their expectations.

Chennai Super Kings (CSK)

Time to start the whistles for the Yellow Army. The defending Champions Chennai Super Kings believe in keeping the same set of players in their squad and that has been their strength and strategy throughout the IPL. Led by Captain Cool M.S. Dhoni, they have made it to the play offs every time they played in the tournament and have featured in 7 finals, winning three IPL titles. Their strategy since 2008 has been to form a team around a strong Indian core. With Murali Vijay, Ravindra Jadeja, Kedar Jadhav, Suresh Raina and M.S. Dhoni, the essential core is ensured which is backed by International stars like Lungi Ngidi, Dwayne Bravo, Shane Watson, Faf du Plessis etc. They rely completely on experience and with the master of the art Dhoni at the helm, there is none better than him in reading and analysing the game situation.

Kings XI Punjab (KXIP)

Kings XI Punjab with their combo of coach Mike Hesson and skipper Ravichandran Ashwin will aim to go long in the league this year. Last year they started the campaign on a high note as they won five out of the first 6 matches but ran out of gas midway and slipped down to the 7th position. With Chris Gayle in prime form in the recently concluded England series where he smashed 39 sixes in 5 ODI games, the Punjab team will keep its impulse aligned with the Jamaican, who is popularly known as 'The Universal Boss.' Nicholas Pooran, David Miller, Sam Curran and Moises Henriques add value to the team as they can use the long handle and clear the boundaries. Their bowling department is exceptional with Mohammed Shami, Ankit Rajpoot and Andrew Tye being the seaming options. The squad has a range of spinners who can trouble the opposition batsmen on any given wicket. They recently roped in mystery spinner Varun Chakravarthy to add more force to their already existing spinning options R. Ashwin and Mujeeb-ur-Rehman. Varun Chakravarthy, who had a bee price of Rs.20 lakh, was bought by Punjab for a whopping sum of Rs.8.40 crore, which is 42 times higher than his base price. Varun used to be a net bowler in the CSK camp in the previous year. He enjoyed a successful stint at the TNPL with an economy of 4.70 runs per over. He is a mystery spinner who has got a lot of variations and tricks up his sleeve. Varun will be a player to watch out for this season as his kitty comprises the carrom ball, flipper, off-break, googly, slider, leg break and a straighter one. No wonder the batsmen need to watch his hand and fingers carefully to guess what is coming their way. With right balance in the squad and a new coach at the helm, Kings XI Punjab will aim to make it big this tournament.

Mumbai Indians (MI)

Mumbai Indians led by Rohit Sharma is one such franchise which has enjoyed the IPL success on 3 occasions — 2013, 2015 and 2017. Last year they had a horrible start to the season and they finished 5th in the table.

Mumbai have known to invest heavily in batting heavy-weights and with the likes of Quinton de Kock, Rohit Sharma, Even Lewis, Ishan Kishan, Hardik Pandya, Kieron Pollard, the team promises entertainment to their fans. Lasith Malinga, who was a part of the coaching team of Mumbai Indians last year, is making a comeback in the squad as a player once again. They have also roped in Indian legendary batsman Yuvraj Singh, who is determined to make a statement to the national selectors. Mumbai Indians rise up the ashes every alternate year and will try to keep their track record.

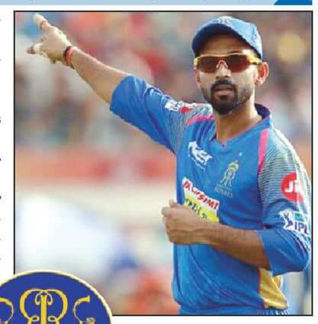
Kolkata Knight Riders (KKR)

The Shah Rukh Khan-owned team led by Dinesh Karthik is one such force which has a lot of fast all-rounders' ammunition in its armour. The all-rounders list runs long in their squad — Andre Russel, Sunil Narine, Brathwaite, Nortje, Denly and Mundhe. Their batting department comprises Chris Lynn, Sunil Narine, Robin Uthappa, Karthik, Shubhman Gill and Nitish Rana. Karthik who is known for his finishing role will aim to balance the team with a mix of exuberance of youth with some experienced campaigners.

Delhi Capitals (DC)

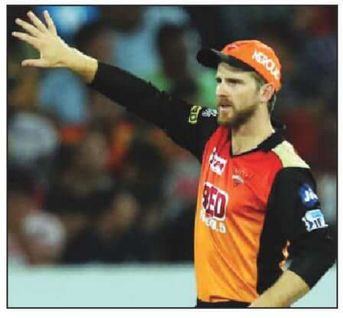
Delhi Daredevils has been renamed as Delhi Capitals, after a change in their ownership as they aim to turn the fortunes in their favour and make a mark in this tournament. This is one such team which has experimented a lot with the combination of players and has been below average in terms of performance over the years apart from the first two seasons. The current squad has a mix of players like Colin Ingram, Shreyas Iyer (C), Shikhar Dhawan, Prithvi Shaw, Amit Mishra, Colin Munro, Rabada, Lamichhane, Trent Boult who will don new colours for their newly renamed team Delhi Capitals. They traded three players with Sunrisers Hyderabad and got flamboyant batsman Shikhar Dhawan. With Sourav Ganguly as their Team Advisor and Ricky Ponting as their Coach, the team will benefit with inputs from two of the greatest cricketing Captains of their era. The Capitals will be hoping to bury their past demons and etch a new start to their IPL journey.

Rajasthan Royals (RR)



The Champions of the inaugural IPL season, Rajasthan Royals will be bolstered with the return of their star player Steve Smith, who is returning after suspension. The squad is well-balanced and has a lot of bench strength and depth. In their ranks, they have Ajinkya Rahane (C), Jos Butler, Ben Stokes, Sanju Samson, Jofra Archer, Jaydev Unadkat, Ashton Turner, Krishnappa Gowtham etc., where every individual can change the game single-handedly on a given day. Royals have always invested in youngsters and Ashton Turner, who gave a glimpse of his big hitting skills in the recently concluded India Vs Australia ODI series will be their trump card. With England Cricket Board reluctant to send their key players to IPL ahead of the World Cup, it is to be seen if Jos Butler is available to show his heroics for Royals once again.

Sunrisers Hyderabad (SRH)



Sunrisers Hyderabad had a splendid IPL campaign last year and they were the runners-up. With the return of David Warner, the team will be rearing to go out and carry the same momentum from where they finished last year. This team has a wonderful set of players who are nurtured by Coach Tom Moody and Mentor VVS Laxman. They picked up Jonny Bairstow recently, who with his power hitting skills can emerge as a match-winner and can also keep wickets. Kane Williamson, who won the Orange Cap last season for scoring most runs (735 runs in 17 matches) is the anchor of the team. He knows how to pace the innings and builds good partnerships with the partners in the middle. Afghanistan superstar Rashid Khan will hope to spin a web amongst the opposition as he will try to trap them with his flippers and leg spin. With the elections and World Cup in place, BCCI is facing immense pressure to schedule the tournament within a tight time-frame. While many Cricket Boards are reluctant to send their players to this League, some Boards will allow their players to feature in IPL for a few days and will call them back once their World Cup preparations begin.

Mysuru, Mar. 23 (RK&SR)- Chairman of India Cellular and Electronics Association (ICEA) Pankaj Mohindroo called upon industrialists to focus on manufacturing competitive electronic goods to compete with International players.

He was interacting with various industrialists at Hotel Silent Shores in city this morning to exchange views and develop a roadmap to catch the attention of policy makers to develop Mysuru as the hardware capital of the country and to discuss the advantages that the city has for the electronics Industry. The event was organised by Vinyas Innovative Technologies Pvt. Ltd and

He said that China, Korea and Japan were dominating the international market by manufacturing cheap and quality electronic goods. China has been producing world's 70 per cent of electronic goods. "To compete with 'China programme on electronics' as part of the policies of Union and State Governments, all small, medium and big industrialists and start-ups must concentrate on manufacturing competitive electronic goods," he said.

Pankaj also said Indian industrialists were successful in their efforts of producing quality goods in food, apparel, leather and other sector at global market and remained competitive in these strong areas today.

"India which was struggling to fill the stomachs of the people and achieved tremendous progress in food grains production and has become self-sufficient and exporting many products even while facing stiff global competition thus remained competitive across the world. Likewise, efforts must be made to achieve progress in electronics goods manufacturing and export areas," he said.

He further said that Mysuru Electronics System Design and Manufacturing (ESDM) cluster was also contributing on its own for the growth electronic goods industry. The presence of ESDM in city promotes technology entrepreneurs from Karnataka so that they could compete with bigger cities. This cluster also support start-ups in the field of automotive, consumer durables, instrumentation, medical, telecommunication sectors and others in the region.

Over 30 industrialists and entrepreneurs from Mysuru Mandya and Bengaluru were present. Earlier, he visited various industries including Innovative Technologies Pvt Ltd. at Mysuru ESDM cluster and collected feedback about the development of Mysuru as potential hub of hardware hub. IPL 2019 to kick-off this evening

"We won't have a regular IPL Opening Ceremony. The amount will be given to families of CRPF victims," the BCCI CoA Vinod Rai has confirmed.

The idea was finalised by BCCI Acting President C.K. Khanna, who had officially submitted the proposal for the Board to donate at least Rs. 5 crore for the martyrs' families.

"I am very happy that CoA has taken a good call to donate the money for martyrs' families. Since the entire budget allocated for the IPL opening ceremony is being donated for a noble cause, the amount is expected to be significantly more than Rs. 5 crore," Khanna said.

It is learnt that a total sum of Rs. 15 crore was earmarked for the opening ceremony and a similar amount would instead be donated to the soldiers' families.

The season, hence, will begin straight with the first game at the M.A. Chidambaram Stadium in Chennai at 8 pm where defending Champions Chennai Super Kings (CSK) host Royal Challengers Bangalore (RCB).

Tough test for RCB in CSK den: The last time RCB won against CSK in the IPL was in 2014, while the last time they won at the Chepauk was in 2008. The twelfth season of India's showpiece T20 tournament gets underway with a mammoth clash this evening.

For the opening match, RCB, led by India captain Virat Kohli, travelled to the Chidambaram Stadium in Chennai, home of numerous glories for CSK, the team led by former India captain M.S. Dhoni.

Banned for two years till 2017, CSK were forced to play all but one home match in Pune last season, with protests over the Cauvery water dispute having forced the BCCI to shift matches out of Chennai. CSK are making a return to their favourite stadium this Season.

For RCB, statistics do not paint a positive picture. Despite a bright start, they finished sixth on the table last season. With some criticism having been directed towards Virat Kohli's captaincy in India colours in recent times, the heat is on him to lead RCB to a good finish this time.

Articulate Festival-34

Cool Classics in Hot Climate

While the temperature was 34 in the corridors and was the same even with fans inside the Veene Seshanna Bhavana, Ganabharathi, Kuvempunagar, the lights shining bright on dancers on stage raised probably to 35, yet during the 34th edition of Articulate Festival curated by Mysore B. Nagaraj for Articulate Trust for Arts, the four classical dancers danced with élan despite sweltering heat.

This was on the 17th March, 2019. The audience too were elegant to sit through the nearly two-and-a-half hours of seamless series of concert that showcased three Bharatanatyam and one Odissi performances all in solo format. Two artistes were from Bengaluru, one from Nagpur and another from Bangladesh.

H.R. Archana commenced with a Gambeera Naatai, Adi Tala based Pushpanjali of Sri Madurai Sethuraman and concluded with a Kannada Hari Dasa Sri Kanakadasa's composition "Baroo Krishnaiah", while she sandwiched an ode to Kamakshi through Sri Muthuwamy Deekshithar's "Kanjadalayathakshi Kamakshi" In kamalamanohari Raga, Adi Tala. Her minimalism of aaharya was very befitting to the times and yet did not take away the aesthetics of appearance of a classical dancer. She performed her Bharatanatyam with grace and classic dignity bringing out the flavours of the composition that meandered from technical per-functionary to Bhakthi.

Pooja Anil Hirwade, a danseuse from Nagpur, chose a Daru Varnam to fit in the time allotted to her to present Bharatanatyam. The Sanskrit-based, Kamaj raga-Adi tala composition of Sri Muthaiah Bhagavatar was very well structured along with the required jathis that connected the different stanzas. The energy that was seen at the beginning was maintained until the concluding step and that made her technical dance part very crisp and geometrical and at the same time her translation of sahithya with appropriate gestures and movements made the whole presentation wonderful.

She had experimented by adding select verses from Soundarya Lahiri at appropriate juncture of the charana to bring out the essence more forceful.

Reshmi Divakaran presented her artistry through two compositions, one technical "Pallavi" the other poetry to which she did Abhinaya. As though not suffice that Odissi is already so lyrical and sensual, Reshmi's stage presence added to the sublime feel of a classic form. The Janasanmohini Raga — Ektaali based Pallavi, true to the meaning grew like a fresh creeper, undulating and swaying to the breeze of melody to the beats of the heart. Sometimes sublime, sometime erotic but many a time pure aesthetic movements of Reshmi made the presentation so enchanting to watch. She bewitched the audience in the Oriya song written by the poet Banamali Das where the bashful Radha expresses her embarrassment to her friend. The situation were the dark Lord disguised as a dark damsel who approached Radha offering to paint red her feet while she obliged by being scantily dressed for this ritual, finding who the girl in disguise was, was so awkward and thwarting.

Zuairiyah Mouli, a Bangla-speaking Bangladeshi, doing South Indian Classical Dance Bharathnatyam to the compositions in Sanskrit, Padam in Kannada and a Bhajan in Hindi was a bundle of inexhaustible energy. Her unleashing of the same through her dancing, be it in her first number which was a Keerthanam in raga neelambari and a composition of Sri Lingaraja Urs eulogising Goddess Kamakshi, or in her second presentation of a Shiva Padam written by Sri Gurumurthy or in her final number of the evening a Surdas Bhajan in Hamsadhwani, was just jaw dropping.

Audience were mesmerised by the execution of Shiva Padam with its dynamic postures and rythamic and complicated moves across the space. Her physical proportion of being short did not hinder in any way in her showcasing of her dancing talent.

With three of the artistes selecting Goddess Kamakshi to offer their Nrutyanjali that evening, it seemed a celebration of that deity on that day, the auspicious Sunday. It was in all cool performances in hot weather.

'Kala Deepthi' celebrates anniversary

By Dr. Padmavathi Narasimhan

Kala Deepthi is a dance organisation devoted to Bharatanatyam. Its Director Deepthi, who is a disciple of Dr. Vasundhara Doraswamy, has trained several students in Bharatanatyam at her school in J.P. Nagar. Eighteen students ranging from 6-7 years to 15 years of age performed for the first anniversary of the Dance School on Feb.27. Senior Dance teacher of the city K. Ramamurthy Rao, Professor Sanjay Kumar of NIE College and musician and art critic Dr. Padmavathi Narasimhan inaugurated the evening's ritual.

The most attractive part of the evening was the anchoring by nine tiny-tots who did their part impressively with no stage fear. The first item 'Nrityanjali' which was in Ragamalike and Talamalike was a short dance by little ones under ten years of age. Keeping with the tradition, the next set of students presented 'Allaripu' in Roopaka tala.

Like Pushpanjali, 'Kauthuvam' was a part of the rituals closely associated with temple and performed within its premises only by those with special authority and a sanction to do so. Recently it has gained prominence in Bharatanatyam recitals. Kautuvam is a hymn or song in praise of a deity. The present Kauthuvam was on Krishna. The structure began with a rhythmic recitation of sollukattus followed by lyric recitation in the same rhythmic metre ending again with a sollukattu. The kauthuvam was in Mohana set to Trishra Gati. 'Kalinga Mardana' was beautifully portrayed. Jatiswara, another important part of a Bharatanatyam recital came next in Vasanta. Devaranama 'Gummana Kareyadire Amma Neenu' by Sri Purandara Dasaru was presented by four pairs of students who played Krishna and Yashoda. 'Taam Taam taam endu Ranga ninna paada, Thai thai thai endu kuniyuva paada' was another devaranama in which in sanchari Narasimhavatara and Vamanavatara were chosen for abhinaya. A Thillana followed in Behag set to Adi TAla. The evening's programme concluded with mangalam set to dance for the popular 'Jaya Janardhana Krishna.'

Choreography for the event was by Deepthi, vocal support was provided by Sparsha Shenoy, another member of Vasundhara Performing Arts Centre, natuvanga by Guru Deepthi, violin accompaniment by Tandava Murthy, flute by Rajesh and mridanga by Hanumantaraju.

The programme is not to be compared with other stage performances as these girls are amateurs and this was staged to provide a platform to the youngsters as an incentive to continue their interest in the art.

Will Modi throw his hat in ring from Bengaluru South?

PM's contest will boost BJP's prospects from State and help party win more than 22 seats

Bengaluru, Mar 23 (UNI)- With the Central BJP leaders withholding announcement of the party nominee for Bengaluru-South Lok Sabha seat, rumours are rife in the political circles that Prime Minister Narendra Modi may chose to contest from there.

According to party sources, the candidature of Narendra Modi, from the seat cannot be ruled out. The presence of Narendra Modi, will have its cascading effects not only in Karnataka, but also can be felt in the neighbouring Tamil Nadu and Kerala also.

The Central BJP leadership, which had released the first list of the names of 21 party nominees to be fielded from Karnataka, had withheld the name of its nominee for the Bengaluru South for which polling is slated for April 18 in the First phase. Tejaswini Ananth Kumar, wife of Union Minister late H.N. Ananth Kumar was an aspirant for the seat represented by her husband for six terms since 1996. While a section of State leaders maintained that her name had been finalised and that her candidature would be announced shortly, sources said that the central leadership had particularly withheld her candidature as Modi was considering contesting from two seats, like in 2014. In the previous Lok Sabha elections, Modi had contested from Vadodara and Varanasi.

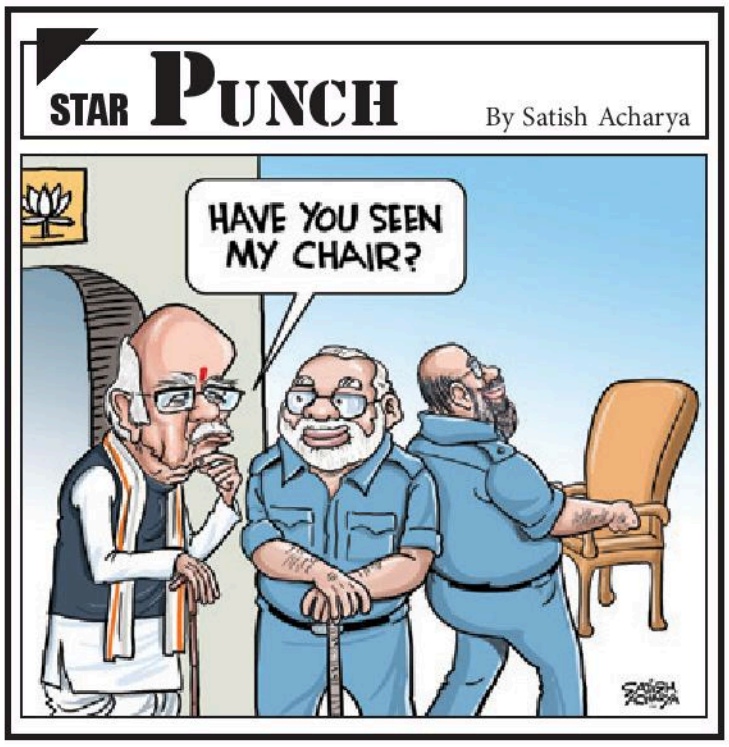
It is learnt that Modi was advised to zero in on a seat from Southern (Bangalore South) or Eastern India (Puri in Odisha or Kolkata), where the BJP's presence is limited. The BJP is looking at winning 15 to 16 seats from Karnataka this time and if Modi contests from the State, then the party hopes to bag more than 22 seats.

This strategy would help BJP come back to power in Karnataka. "Modi's candidature from Karnataka will upset the coalition applecart to such an extent that post-elections, the BJP will be in a position to form the government in the State," said a leader. But BJP State President B.S. Yeddyurappa told reporters in Bengaluru that Modi will not contest from Bangalore South.

If Modi contests from Bengaluru South and Varanasi, he will win both. In such an event, he will retain Varanasi like last time and resign from Bangalore South, paving way for Tejaswini's candidature," said party insiders.



Gautam Gambhir joins BJP, likely to contest from New Delhi seat

New Delhi, Mar. 23- Former Indian cricketer Gautam Gambhir joined the Bharatiya Janata Party yesterday with weeks to go for the Lok Sabha elections and said he was 'impressed by Prime Minister Narendra Modi's vision'.

"I am impressed by Prime Minister Narendra Modi's vision... I have contributed to the field of cricket and now hope to do more for the country", the 37-year-old cricketer said.

Inducting the former cricketer into the party, Finance Minister Arun Jaitley said, "Gambhir has excelled in his career and the party hopes to utilise his talent. The BJP will benefit from his talent." When asked if Gambhir would contest from a Lok Sabha seat in Delhi, Jaitley said let the party's election committee decide that.

With his reach of nearly nine million followers, the ex-cricketer has been frequently commenting on social and security issues leading to speculation that he was planning to join politics. He had, however, dismissed all speculation saying: "I have got a young family and I need to think about them as well because I have hardly spent any time with them. I do not want to miss their early days and let us see where I go from here."

The former opening batsman

was conferred with India's fourth highest civilian honour, the Padma Shri award, earlier this year and received a congratulatory letter from Prime Minister Narendra Modi. A resident of Rajendra Nagar in Delhi, Gambhir made his one-day international debut for the Indian national team in April 2003 against Bangladesh and went on to play 147 ODIs for the side.

His performances in the finals of the 2007 T20 World Cup final against Pakistan and the 2011 World Cup final against Sri Lanka helped India win both the titles. And Gambhir, in the process, went on to acquire something of a cult status among Indian fans.

He also earned 58 Test caps and scored nine hundreds and 22 fifties in the longest format of the game. Gambhir's last appearance in an Indian shirt came in 2016 but he continued plying his trade in domestic cricket.

The 37-year-old announced his retirement from all forms of cricket following Delhi's Ranji Trophy clash against Andhra last December.

Two more file nominations for Mysuru LS seat

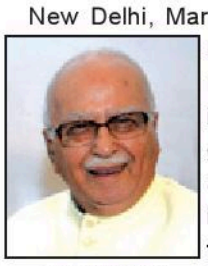
Mysuru, Mar.23 - The number of candidates filing nominations for Mysuru-Kodagu Lok Sabha seat rose to ten on Friday, with two more candidates filing their nomination papers.

N.K. Kaveriamma filed nomination paper as an independent candidate, while V. Asha Rani filed her nomination as the candidate of Uttama Prajakiya Party, floated by actor Upendra.

Friday also saw two candidates – B.D. Ningappa and Srinivasaiah, who had already filed nomination, filing one more set of nomination papers each as independent candidates.

Advani likely to get RS seat in lieu of Gandhinagar loss

New Delhi, Mar. 23- Senior BJP leader L. K. Advani is likely to be given a Rajya Sabha seat in May 2019 from Gujarat. BJP President Amit Shah is contesting from Advani's Gandhinagar seat and if he gets elected to the Lok Sabha, Advani will replace him in the Rajya Sabha. In other words, the two are swapping seats.



L.K. Advani

Sources in the BJP headquarters said that Advani has been sounded out about this swap before the first lot of candidates were announced and has been told that he is ageing and therefore contesting an election may prove tough, but he remains a tall leader for the party. Advani has retained the Gandhinagar seat six times.

The omission of the 91-year-old BJP stalwart's name from the list of candidates has given rise to many speculations about his political future and whether it signals the end of the poll road for him. Sources cite his age and health factors as the reasons for dropping his name from the candidates list.

Advani was elected to the RS for four consecutive terms and to the LS on seven occasions. Though he has been marginalised by the ruling party since 2014, sources say that the party is not averse to the idea of giving him one more chance in RS.

WORD OF THE DAY

Hamartia

Pronunciation: hah-mahr-TEE-uh

Meaning: A fatal flaw leading to the downfall of a tragic hero or heroine.
Origin: Hamartia arose from the Greek verb hamartanein, meaning "to miss the mark" or "to err." Aristotle introduced the term in the Poetics to describe the error of judgment which ultimately brings about the tragic hero's downfall. As you can imagine, the word is most often found in literary criticism. However, media writers occasionally employ the word when discussing the unexplainable misfortune or missteps of celebrities regarded as immortal gods and goddesses before being felled by their own shortcomings.

Examples: A review of Chappaquiddick (a movie about U.S. Senator Ted Kennedy) comments that "Kennedy's ruthlessness and ambition, which are treated as the family's hamartia in Chappaquiddick, are swept under the rug of his compassion." – The New Republic, April 2018. "Characters in Greek tragedies usually had a hamartia, or fatal flaw. Hubris, pride, presumption and arrogance were some of the chief character traits that brought down peasants and emperors alike." — Christine Barnes, The Tallahassee (Florida) Democrat, 6 May2010.

THE ODD WORD

Class of slaves

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Honey catches more flies than vinegar

Meaning: It is more effective to be polite and flattering than to be hostile or demanding.

Origin: This proverb originated in Italy and is found in Giovanni Torriano's A common place of Italian proverbs and proverbial phrases, 1666. The saying is based on the literal truth that flies are attracted to honey, which has been used to bait fly-traps for centuries. The proverb is now more used in the USA than elsewhere, where it is often thought to be coined by Benjamin Franklin. That may be because Franklin included it in his 1744 publication Poor Richard's Almanack: "Tart Words make no Friends: spoonful of honey will catch more flies than Gallon of Vinegar."
